Is our purpose, is our mission, is our aim.

When Peter met the risen Lord
He felt his guilt and shame
But all the Saviour asked him, was:
Do you love me still the same?

Peter said: I love you Lord
You know it very well
Then feed my lambs, the Master said
I lead you from now until the end

Jesus, you are the passion of our hearts
Be exalted, forever lifted up
To honour and proclaim Your Holy Name
Is our purpose, is our mission, is our aim.

Like the sower goes out to his field
The Lord sent out his friends
Into the world to share the Fathers
Plan of peace and grace

They went and sowed, with tears and pain
Some never saw the fruit
To live was Christ, to die their gain
His glory and fame they did pursue

Jesus, you are the passion of our hearts
Be exalted, forever lifted up
To honour and proclaim Your Holy Name
Is our purpose, is our mission, is our aim.

Now the fields are white for harvest
The labourers are few
Before the King is coming back
There's still a lot to do

Lord, send them from around the world
To join us in the task
To see all nations know and love
And worship You the Risen Lamb of God

Jesus, you are the passion of our hearts
Be exalted, forever lifted up
To honour and proclaim Your Holy Name
Is our purpose, is our mission, is our aim.
